

The Gift of Wisdom: Seeking God's Guidance in Decision-Making

By Melkisedeck Leon Shine · July 5, 2023

Christian Teachings to Strengthen Your Faith, By Melkisedeck Leon

The Gift of Wisdom: Seeking God's Guidance in Decision-Making ?

In the journey of life, we are faced with countless decisions that shape our future. From choosing a career path to deciding whom to marry, each decision carries weight and consequence. As Christians, we are called to seek God's guidance in all our decision-making, for it is through His wisdom that we can navigate the complexities of life. Let us explore the gift of wisdom through biblical examples and teachings, and discover how we can apply them to our own lives. ?

1 King Solomon, renowned for his wisdom, sought God's guidance when asked to decide the true mother of a disputed child. In 1 Kings 3:16-28, we see how Solomon's wisdom allowed him to discern the truth and bring justice to a heartbreaking situation.

2 In Proverbs 3:5-6, we are encouraged to trust in the Lord with all our hearts and lean not on our own understanding. This verse reminds us that our limited perspective may lead us astray, but when we acknowledge God in our decision-making, He will direct our paths.

3 Jesus Himself exemplified seeking God's guidance. In Luke 6:12, before choosing His disciples, Jesus spent the night in prayer. This shows us the importance of seeking God's will before making significant decisions.

4 The Bible is filled with verses that provide guidance for various aspects of life. Proverbs 16:3 reminds us to commit our plans to the Lord, and they will succeed. Psalm 37:4 encourages us to delight in the Lord, and He will give us the desires of our hearts.

5 Jesus taught us to seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness in Matthew 6:33. By prioritizing our relationship with God, we align ourselves with His will, and our decisions become a reflection of His wisdom.

6 Romans 12:2 urges us not to conform to the patterns of this world, but to be transformed by the renewing of our minds. When we seek God's guidance, our decisions are no longer influenced by societal pressures or personal ambitions, but by His divine wisdom.

7 The gift of wisdom is not limited to the great leaders of the Bible. It is available to each and every one of us. James 1:5 tells us that if we lack wisdom, we should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault.

8 Seeking God's guidance requires a humble heart. Proverbs 11:2 teaches us that when pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom. It is through humility that we acknowledge our need for God's wisdom in our decision-making.

9 The journey of seeking God's guidance is not always easy. We may face uncertainty and doubt along the way. However, Proverbs 3:6 reassures us that when we acknowledge

Him, He will make our paths straight.

? Seeking God's guidance also involves aligning our desires with His will. Psalm 37:5 encourages us to commit our ways to the Lord and trust in Him. As we surrender our desires to Him, our decisions become a reflection of His wisdom.

11 Proverbs 2:6 reminds us that it is the Lord who gives wisdom, and from His mouth come knowledge and understanding. Our pursuit of wisdom should always begin with seeking Him.

12 As we seek God's guidance, it is crucial to surround ourselves with wise counsel. Proverbs 15:22 tells us that plans fail for lack of counsel, but with many advisers, they succeed. Seeking the advice of trusted Christian mentors can provide valuable insights and perspectives.

13 Along with seeking God's wisdom, we are called to love Him with all our hearts. Matthew 22:37-39 teaches us that the greatest commandment is to love the Lord our God and love our neighbors as ourselves. When our decisions are rooted in love, they align with God's will.

14 Loving others and being considerate of their needs is a vital aspect of decision-making. Philippians 2:3-4 urges us to consider others better than ourselves and not just our own interests. When we put the needs of others before our own, we embody the wisdom of God.

15 Finally, as we navigate the complexities of decision-making, let us trust in God's faithfulness. Jeremiah 29:11 assures us that God has plans to prosper us and not to harm us, plans to give us hope and a future. May we find comfort in knowing that His wisdom will always guide us towards His perfect will.

Remember, seeking God's guidance in decision-making is a continuous journey. Let us strive to align our hearts with His, surrendering our desires and seeking His wisdom every step of the way. May the gift of wisdom be a source of joy and peace in our lives, enabling us to make decisions that honor and glorify God. ??

May God bless you abundantly as you seek His guidance and trust in His wisdom. Amen.
??