

Resting in God's Promises: Daily Assurance of His Unfailing Love and Protection

By Melkisedeck Leon Shine · July 5, 2023

Recommended Christian Daily Readings

Resting in God's Promises: Daily Assurance of His Unfailing Love and Protection

? As Christians, we are blessed with the incredible privilege of resting in God's promises. In a world filled with uncertainty, fear, and turmoil, God offers us daily assurance of His unfailing love and protection. It is through this assurance that we can find peace, joy, and strength to navigate life's challenges. Let us explore the beauty of resting in God's promises, drawing inspiration from biblical examples and teachings.

1 One of the most profound examples of resting in God's promises comes from the life of Abraham. God promised him that he would be the father of many nations, even though he and Sarah were well beyond childbearing years. Despite the physical impossibility, Abraham believed in God's promise and it was counted to him as righteousness (Genesis 15:6).

2 In the book of Psalms, we find numerous verses that remind us of God's unwavering love and protection. Psalm 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble." This reassures us that no matter the circumstances, God is always with us, ready to provide the comfort and support we need.

3 Jesus, our ultimate example, taught us about the importance of resting in God's promises. In Matthew 6:26, He said, "Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they?" This powerful reminder encourages us to trust in God's provision and care for us.

4 The story of David and Goliath illustrates the strength and protection that God offers His children. Despite facing a giant and seemingly insurmountable odds, David trusted in God and emerged victorious. This story reminds us that with God on our side, we can overcome any challenge that comes our way (1 Samuel 17).

5 The words of Isaiah 41:10 fill our hearts with hope: "So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." This verse assures us that in times of fear and uncertainty, God is with us, providing strength and support.

6 The story of Joseph demonstrates how God's promises brought him from a place of adversity to a position of prominence and blessing. Though faced with betrayal, slavery, and imprisonment, Joseph trusted in God's plan and eventually became the second-in-command of Egypt. His story teaches us that even in the darkest moments, God's promises will prevail (Genesis 37-50).

7 Jesus, in His Sermon on the Mount, assures us of God's faithfulness and care. In Matthew 6:33, He says, "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." This verse reminds us of the importance of prioritizing our relationship with God and trusting that He will provide for our needs.

8 The story of Noah and the ark serves as a powerful reminder of God's faithfulness to His promises. Despite the world being filled with wickedness, God protected Noah and his family, preserving them through the flood. This story highlights God's commitment to His people and His ability to deliver them from destruction (Genesis 6-9).

9 The book of Proverbs is filled with words of wisdom that guide us in resting in God's promises. Proverbs 3:5-6 says, "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight." This verse encourages us to trust in God's guidance and submit our lives to His will.

? The story of Daniel in the lion's den showcases the mighty protection of God. Despite facing imminent danger, Daniel remained faithful to God, trusting that He would deliver him. God shut the mouths of the lions, demonstrating His power and faithfulness (Daniel 6).

11 The book of Romans reminds us of God's unwavering love and protection. Romans 8:38-39 says, "For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." This verse offers us the assurance that nothing can separate us from God's love.

12 Jesus, in John 10:27-28, assures us of His constant care: "My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand." These words remind us of the security we have in Christ and the eternal life that awaits us.

13 The story of Moses and the Israelites crossing the Red Sea exemplifies God's miraculous intervention on behalf of His people. When the Israelites were trapped between the sea and Pharaoh's pursuing army, God parted the waters, allowing them to cross safely. This story symbolizes God's ability to make a way where there seems to be no way (Exodus 14).

15 In the final words of the book of Revelation, Jesus gives us a promise of His imminent return: "Look, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done" (Revelation 22:12). This promise fills our hearts with anticipation and reminds us to live faithfully, knowing that God's promises will be fulfilled.

? As we rest in God's promises, let us remember that we are loved, protected, and cared for by our Heavenly Father. May these biblical examples and teachings encourage us to trust in God's unfailing love, to prioritize our relationship with Him, and to seek His guidance in all things. Let us love God, believe in Him, love one another, and trust in His promises. May His blessings overflow in our lives as we navigate this journey of faith. Amen. ?