Mary's Fiat: A Model of Surrender and Obedience

? Introduction ? In the story of Christianity, the Blessed Virgin Mary holds a special place as the Mother of God. Her unwavering faith, surrender, and obedience have made her a model for all believers to follow. Mary's "fiat," or her "yes" to God's plan, demonstrates the utmost trust in the divine will. Let us explore the beauty of Mary's surrender and obedience, and how we can apply these virtues in our own lives.

1 A Humble Heart ? Mary's fiat was rooted in her deep humility. Despite being chosen to be the Mother of God, she never sought recognition or power. Instead, she embraced her role with grace and humility, recognizing that she was simply an instrument in God's divine plan. Her humility serves as a reminder to us all to be humble in our own lives and to trust in God's plan for us.

2 Surrendering to God's Will ? Mary's fiat exemplifies her complete surrender to God's will. When the angel Gabriel appeared to her, announcing that she would bear a child, Mary's response was, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38). This profound act of surrender teaches us the importance of aligning our will with God's and trusting in His plan, even when it may be difficult or unknown to us.

3 Obedience in Action ? Mary's obedience to God's will was unwavering. She willingly accepted the challenges and uncertainties that lay ahead, knowing that God was guiding her every step of the way. Her obedience allowed her to fulfill her role as the Mother of God and participate in the salvation of humanity. Just as Mary embraced obedience, we too are called to faithfully follow God's commandments and live in accordance with His teachings.

4 Biblical Examples ? Throughout the Bible, we can find numerous examples of Mary's surrender and obedience. One such example can be seen at the Wedding at Cana (John 2:1-11). When the wine ran out, Mary turned to Jesus and said, "They have no wine." Even though Jesus initially responded, "Woman, what does this have to do with me?" Mary remained steadfast in her faith and obedience, telling the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." By trusting in Jesus and following His instructions, Mary played a pivotal role in the first public miracle performed by Jesus.

5 The Catechism's Wisdom ? The Catechism of the Catholic Church beautifully articulates Mary's fiat and its significance: "By her complete adherence to the Father's will, to his Son's redemptive work, and to every prompting of the Holy Spirit, the Virgin Mary is the Church's model of faith and charity" (CCC 967). Mary's surrender and obedience serve as an inspiration for all believers, reminding us to align our lives with God's will and to trust in His guidance.

6 Saints and Mary's Fiat ? Throughout the history of the Catholic Church, many saints have looked to Mary as a model of surrender and obedience. Saint Therese of Lisieux, for example, had a deep devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and often prayed to her for guidance in her own spiritual journey. Saint Maximilian Kolbe also found inspiration in Mary's fiat, choosing to surrender his life in the place of a fellow prisoner in Auschwitz. These saints and many others have recognized the powerful example set by Mary and sought to emulate her virtues in their own lives.

7 Finding Strength in Surrender ? Surrendering to God's will does not mean giving up or losing control. On the contrary, it is an act of trust and a recognition that God's plan is far greater than our own. When we surrender to God, we find strength in knowing that He is in control and that He will guide us through any challenges we may face.

8 Embracing Obedience as Love ? Obedience is often seen as a restrictive concept, limiting our freedom and desires. However, Mary's obedience shows us that true obedience is an act of love. By following God's commandments and living according to His teachings, we show our love and gratitude for all that He has done for us. Obedience is not a burden, but rather a path to true freedom and fulfillment in our lives.

9 Mary, Our Loving Mother ????? As Catholics, we have a special devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. She is not only the Mother of God but also our loving mother who intercedes for us and guides us along our spiritual journey. Just as a loving mother looks after her children, Mary watches over us and offers us her support and prayers. We can turn to her in times of need, seeking her intercession and following her example of surrender and obedience.

? Conclusion ? Mary's fiat serves as a model of surrender and obedience for all believers. Her humility, surrender, and obedience are virtues that we can strive to emulate in our own lives. By trusting in God's plan, aligning our will with His, and obediently following His commandments, we can grow in faith and deepen our relationship with Him. Let us reflect on Mary's example and ask ourselves, are we willing to say "yes" to God's will in our own lives? ?
